A plaque expressing appreciation to the Canadian Red Cross, the Minden Red Cross Society and the citizens of Minden was unveiled Wednesday at the Minden Hospital. The ceremonies were held to pay tribute to the contribution these groups had made to the Minden hospital over the years and to mark the transfer of control of the hospital to St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough. On hand to unveil the plaque were, from the left, the Speaker of the Provincial Legislature and member for Peterborough, John Turner, Victoria-Haliburton MPP John Eakins and Bob Mitchell MPP for Carlton and parliamentary assistant to the Minister of Health, Keith Norton. A similar unveiling ceremony took place earlier Wednesday in Haliburton.

Ceremonies mark changeover

While the official transfer of the Minden and Haliburton Hospitals to the control of St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough took place February 1 of this year, ceremonies marking the contribution of the Red Cross and the community at large were held in each village last Wednesday.

In both instances large crowds were on hand to witness the ceremonies which took place under threatening skies outside each of the two hospitals.

The executive director of St. Joseph's Hospital, Mr. Leo Doiron, served as master of ceremonies at the two presentations.

Brigadier General James Westhead, representing the Ontario Division of the Red Cross, presented each hospital with a plaque outlining the history of each facility and noting some of the highlights.

These plaques will be placed in the foyer of each of the hospitals providing a record of the contribution made by the community and especially the Red Cross.

The chairman of the St. Joseph's Board of Trustees, Carole Pulver recounted how the hospital board had established a committee three years ago to oversee the transition of the two county hospitals to the control of the Peterborough facility. She noted that the board of trustees includes representation from both Minden and Haliburton.

"Preparing for the transfer of the two hospitals was a great deal of work for all involved. I'm sure at times we have all asked ourselves, 'why?' Mrs. Pulver told the audience. "In our case, I refer you to the first sentence of the Mission Statement contained in the hospital's annual report ... 'St. Joseph's General Hospital is dedicated to helping people by treating their injuries, curing their diseases and maintaining their health. The hospital is committed to a high level of patient care firmly grounded on a respect for the dignity and worth of each person, regardless of race, religion, age, mental or physical condition."

She also noted that the expansion of responsibilities to include Minden and Haliburton Hospitals created new challenges for the department heads at St. Joseph's. "This was a refreshing new project, a definite change from the pursuit of restraint which has been our main task during the past few years."

Mrs. Pulver also paid tribute to the efforts which had gone into the two hospitals. "We at St. Joseph's are very aware of what has been achieved here," she told the audience. "These hospitals have an important place in the fabric of these communities. We are happy to be a part of these ongoing efforts."

Chamber needs more support says councillors

A resolution passed by Lutterworth Council calling for an end to County funding of the Chamber of Commerce has not received the support of Anson, Hindon and Minden Council.

In a wide ranging debate, during the municipal council meeting on Thursday, August 23, members of the council called for improved communications between the County Council and the Chamber, an increase in County funding, and a change in the Chambers marketing strategy.

The discussion was initiated by councillor Gary Kenney who asked for comments on a resolution passed by Lutterworth Council calling for an end to County funding of the Chamber in 1985.

Deputy Reeve Ed Pergolas, who is a representative on County Council, noted that the only information he had on the current situation was supplied in a verbal report to County Council by Ron Gambell and Elgin Stouffer.

He stated that it would be difficult to decide on the issue of County funding without more information. "We have no written report that we can digest and comment on," he said adding "It is very difficult to vote on something when you don't know what the hell is going on."

Reeve Lyle McKnight pointed out that a report was presently being prepared for County Council by the Chamber.

The reeve went on to suggest that the Chamber should change its marketing strategy and place more emphasis on promoting the Highlands outside the county. He noted that a pamphlet prepared by the Central Ontario Tourist Association and distributed in southern Ontario did not include any information on Haliburton County.

He contrasted this with the fact that pamphlets prepared by the Chamber were being distributed locally, adding that there was no need to spend tax dollars to send pamphlets to people within the county. He added that information booths which have been established by a number of municipalities can provide information to area visitors.

Councillor Gary Kenney stated that although he has been critical of the Chamber in the past "if anything I am more disappointed in County Council." He added, "There has never been any real monitoring of the Chamber expenditures," by the Council.

Referring to the $60,000 grant provided to the Chamber by the County, Kenney stated, "We should be spending three times as much but we should monitor the funds."

Deputy Reeve Pergolas pointed out that County Council does have two representatives on the Board of Directors of the Chamber but noted, "They can't get the answers to bring back to Council."

He also pointed out that the Chamber had asked for more funds than they are presently receiving but that the "management committee had cut them down to $60,000."

He added that he did not feel that monitoring the funds was that important noting "A grant is a grant; we should give the money and ask them to spend it wisely."

Reeve McKnight responded "The County should be involved in the process but we don't want our representatives telling them how to spend the funds."

Councillor Kenney stated that perhaps the Council does not want to give more than $60,000 "because they don't want to get involved" and added that if more funds were allocated to the Chamber the Council would become more involved with the Chamber's programs.

Reeve McKnight suggested that the manager of the Chamber should report to

Playground called unsafe

The playground equipment in the municipally owned park near the firehall has been criticized as being poorly maintained and dangerous.

The criticisms were outlined in a letter read to council on Thursday from a Minden resident.

The letter noted that the seats on the swings were splintered, bolts were loose on the swings and slide causing the equipment to wobble, nail heads were protruding on some of the equipment and children could receive scrapes from the rusted metal on the climbing equipment.

The letter also pointed out that a toddler could fall into the space between the platform and the first step on the slide.

The unidentified author of the letter suggested that one law suit against the municipality could pay for an entire new set of playground equipment.

Council turned the matter over to the Parks Committee to initiate repairs.

An impressive lineup of ribbon cutters was on hand Monday to officially open the new 18 hole golf course at PineStone Inn and Country Club. Those taking part in the ceremony included, from the left, MP Bill Scott, Hastings-Peterborough MPP Jim Pollock representing the Minister of Tourism Rueben Baetz, MPP John Eakins, Wren Blair president and general manager of operations at PineStone, Haliburton County Warden Lyle McKnight and Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey. A large group of sports celebrities were in attendance to observe the opening and enjoy a round of golf on the course. Canadian golf professional George Knudson also conducted a golfing clinic prior to the start of play. The expansion of the PineStone course to 18 holes is the latest in recent improvements to the resort.

Approval given for trail work

The municipal Parks Department has been authorized by Council to proceed with the construction of the municipality's cross country ski trails.

Council had originally intended to fund the construction of the trails under the federal and provincial grant that was awarded earlier this year for the construction of sidewalks in the village of Minden, but those funds have run out.

Council agreed to allocate up to $1000 for the purchase of a chain saw and safety equipment for municipal employees engaged in the brushing operations on the trail.

Some grading of the trail will also be carried out.

Council will also instruct the municipal solicitor to continue negotiations with the owner of the Beaverbrook Golf Course for permission to use property adjacent to the municipal road allowance for the trail.

County Council.

When asked by Councillor Kenney if the matter of Chamber funding would be discussed by County Council in a Committee of the Whole, Reeve McKnight who is Warden of the County said that it would not. "The Chamber issue has to be aired" he said, adding "It will not go to a Committee of the Whole."

Hospital ceremonies

to the staff at both facilities and told the audiences. "We still want you to consider this your hospital. On behalf of the board, I pledge to the community that St. Joseph's Hospital will carry out its role with sincerity, wisdom and concern. In return we request your interest and support for our efforts."

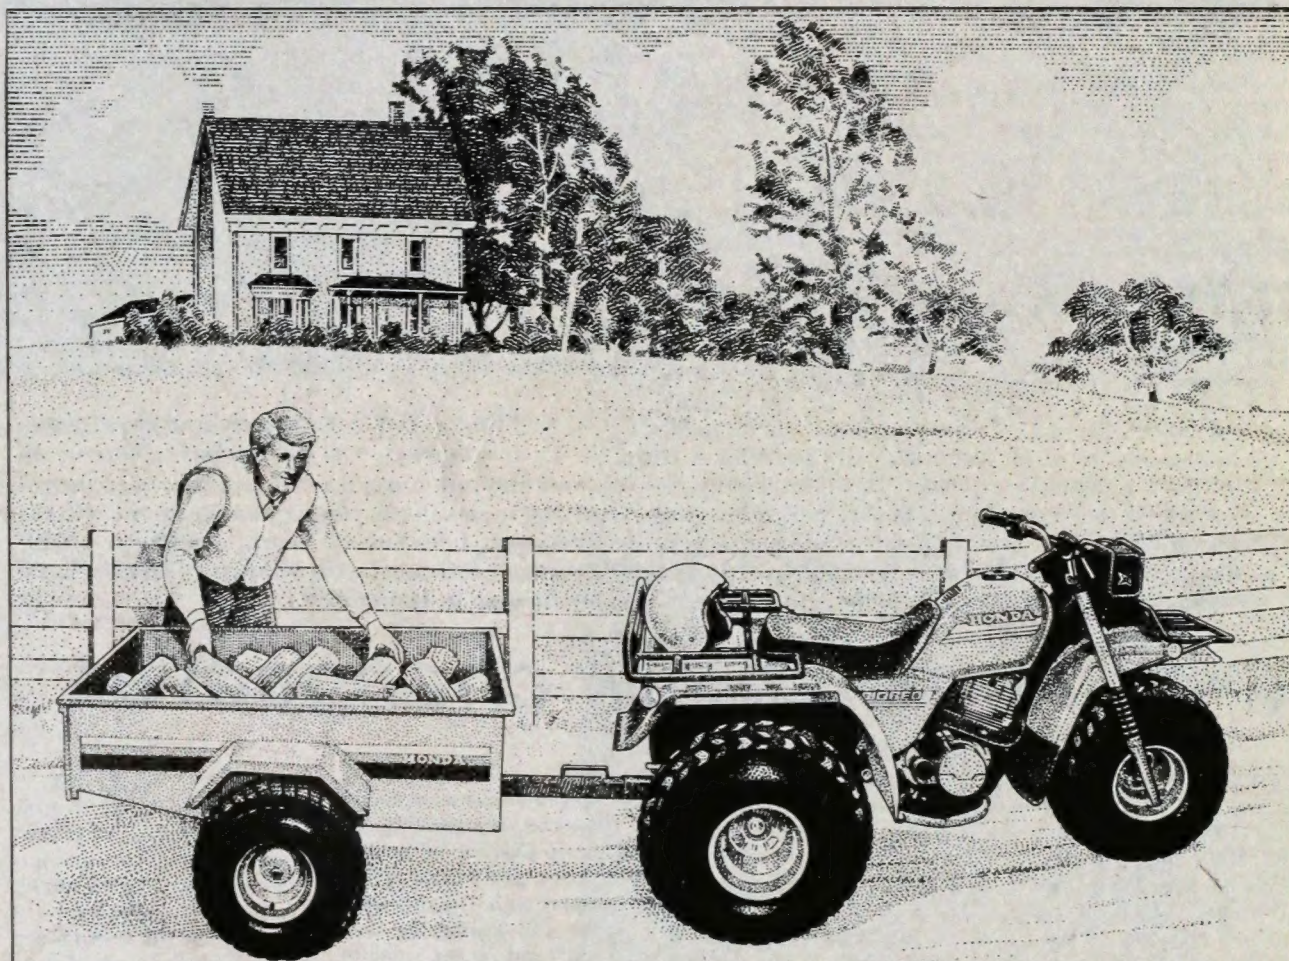

Plaques, paying tribute to the efforts of the Red Cross in developing and operating both hospitals were then unveiled. The plaques will be on display at each hospital and mark the official change of control.

Barb Dawson, representing the Haliburton Red Cross, responded to the comments of the chairman. She noted that the Haliburton facility had been a joint effort of the permanent residents, seasonal visitors and hospital staff. "We've come a long way since 1936," she told the crowd in Haliburton. "I can assure the board of trustees we appreciate this merger." Mrs. Dawson also expressed appreciation to the Ontario Red Cross for their support in the past.

In Minden Grace Coburn spoke on behalf of the local Red Cross Society. She said the hospital was the heart of the community. Mrs. Coburn paid tribute to the nurses, doctors and the community at large, including service clubs, individuals, camps, summer residents and resorts for their support of the Minden facility over the years. "We are looking forward to a long and harmonious partnership with St. Joseph's," she concluded.

Refreshments were served following the ceremonies with the hospitals open for those wishing to tour the facilities.

Big Red just got bigger.

Last year, Big Red was the most powerful workhorse in Honda's ATC stable. This year, Big Red has been given even more power. To work and to play. Burly and durable, Big Red loves to flex its muscles around the farm or worksite. But it also likes to unwind and get away from it all. Powered by a big new 246 cc four-stroke engine designed by Honda exclusively for ATC use, Big Red delivers exceptional pulling power at low and medium engine speeds. And single shock rear suspension and a cushy front fork help get that power to the ground. With a five-speed transmission, featuring super low and reverse gears, shaft drive, low-maintenance electronic ignition, and standard front and rear racks and a trailer hitch, Big Red is the most versatile ATC ever. So give yourself more power. With our bigger Big Red.

Prizes awarded in second juried show

Vicki Cross of Minden accepts her award from Councillor Gary Kenney after her wall hanging was chosen as Best of Show and Best from the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden at the Juried Art Show held in the Agnes Jamieson Gallery last Friday evening.

A hand-woven silk and cotton wallhanging created by Vicki Cross of Minden was selected as the best entry in the Juried Fabric and Fibre Show at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery on Friday.

The work, entitled "Trilliums" was also selected as the best entry from the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden.

Adjudicator Bill Fitches, a teacher and designer from Oshawa, expressed surprise at the amount and quality of the work that is being created in this area.

"There is a lot more going on here than in Oshawa," he said, adding, "When you come up here and see the quality of the work, it is quite astounding."

He described the winning entry as "a very simple, delicate and beautiful piece of work" that would have been very difficult to weave.

The Best of Open category was won by Miriam Barnes for her basket weaving. The basket, woven in the shape of a milk pitcher, is entitled "Cream of Oats."

Fitches commented that he has a friend who travels all over the world in search of woven handbaskets. "He hasn't been here yet, but he should see this" Fitches said, adding, "When you create something by hand, it means a great deal."

Fitches also selected three other works for Honourable Mention out of the 19 entries that were submitted.

Margit Moraal received a Honourable Mention for her wallhanging that combined tree fungi with woven wool and cotton on a barnboard frame.

Judy Chapman was nominated for a hand-woven wool sweater that the adjudicator described as being "not only wearable, but also art."

A large blue disc of quilted material in a wooden frame won a Honourable Mention for Margot Ziorjen of Minden.

The awards to the artists were presented by Councillor Gary Kenney on behalf of the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden.

Police probe breakins along Highway 35

Investigations into a series of break-ins which occurred along Highway 35 during the weekend are continuing.

Police report that around 9 o'clock Saturday evening Corporal Steve Adam and Constable Boyd Jarvis were investigating a break-in at the Lutterworth Township office, when two individuals were seen running from the roads department shed at the rear of the property. The officers gave chase, but were unable to apprehend the two. According to the police, a number of clues as to the identity of the individuals were found at the scene.

The pair had forced their way into the municipal library in the basement of the office and later entered the garage. Nothing was reported taken in either incident.

Later the same evening, individuals broke into the Minden Marine store at the intersection of Highway 35 and Main Street. A large plate glass window in the front of the premises was broken to gain access.

The intruders removed the keys to a 1984 model motorhome which was parked outside the showroom. The unlicensed vehicle was driven away by the thieves and has yet to be recovered.

The vehicle is 24 feet in length, has a V-8 engine and is white with bronze stripes.

The vehicle is valued at $34,000.

Constable Bob Wood is the investigating officer.

In a third incident, intruders broke into the safe at the Home 'N' Hearth store in Carnarvon sometime Saturday morning. An undetermined amount of cash was taken in the break-in.

Constable Mike Maher is the investigating officer.

Police are also investigating the possibility that a Honda Prelude, which was found crashed into a tree on the extension of Main Street south of Highway 35, is somehow related to the break-ins reported in the area. Authorities required chain saws to free the vehicle from the trees where it crashed on the deserted road allowance. There appeared to be no sign of injury to driver or passenger.

Theft

Police are also continuing their investigation into the theft of a crossbow and arrows from the Moore Lake Marine store at Moore Falls on Highway 35.

A youth was seen running from the store with the merchandise. He was chased north along Highway 35 but disappeared in the bush after crossing the bridge.

A shared responsibility

One of the most precious traditions of our democratic society is the right to select those who will make laws governing the lives of all citizens. Canadians will have the opportunity in less than a week.

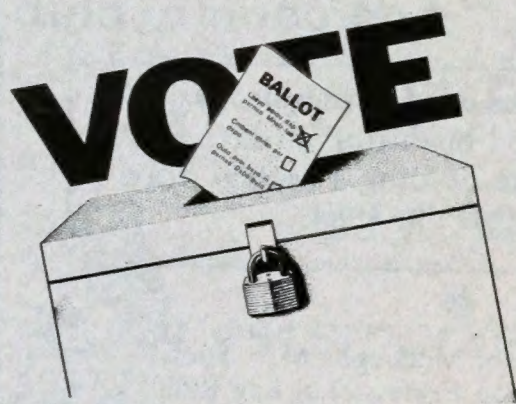

Voting is one of the most important responsibilities entrusted to members of our society. The action of casting a ballot in an open and free election is evidence of the democratic traditions on which this country was founded and continues to be sustained. By voting one also makes a statement about concern for the future, both personally and for the nation as a whole.

One need not look too far in this world to find nations where the act of citizen participation in the governing of the country has been reduced to a meaningless charade, or is nonexistent altogether. Such is not the case here.

The right to vote is the cornerstone of a democratic society. Other rights enjoyed in a democratic society, the right to peaceful dissent, freedom of speech, religion, assembly, among others, have their basis in the fact that the governed have the right to select who will govern.

As important as the casting of a ballot is, citizens have a responsibility as well to ensure they make an informed choice. Examining the platforms, promises and personalities of the candidate at the local and national level will give the voter a good idea where each faction stands.

We all share a responsibility to our country, our neighbours and the democratic traditions of Canada to vote next Tuesday.

Compensation still owing

- by John Eakins, MPP -

My Leader David Peterson, and my colleague Jim Breithaupt, Q.C., M.P.P. (Kitchener), recently issued a communique calling on the Ontario Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations and the Government of Ontario to immediately take steps to compensate the preferred shareholders of Crown Trust.

Two years of regulatory failure and negligent supervision resulted in the government's unprecedented takeover of three trust companies, including Crown Trust. In their haste and incompetence, they foolishly forgot or intentionally ignored hundreds of absolutely innocent investors, holders of the most conservative securities, Crown Trust preferred shares. Until January 7, 1983, these shares were considered the soundest and most conservative of investments. At one time, the estate of the late Premier, John Robarts, held these shares, as did the mother-in-law of the Registrar of Loan and Trust Corporations.

Since February 1983 we have been demanding that the Minister of Consumer and Commercial Relations take action to right the wrongs this government has perpetrated on the Crown Trust preferred shareholders. Repeatedly, the Minister has made promises of assistance, all of which have been broken.

The cost to the Ministry of the Trust Company fiasco will amount to at least $15 million for the period ending March 31, 1985. It is almost entirely unlikely that any of this money will ever be recouped. The government must face up to this fact. The Tory Government must not be allowed to make the Crown Trust preferred shareholders the scapegoats in this sorry scenario of regulatory failure. They must compensate this group fully and promptly.

We support entirely C. Wallis King's request to Premier Davis that the Province of Ontario fund the legal expenses of the Committee of Crown Trust Preferred Shareholders.

The government has cut off every other avenue of redress available to the preferred shareholders. The province, we can be sure, will draw out the length of these legal proceedings, as it has already successfully resisted efforts to have the preferred shareholder's dilemma resolved quickly in the courts. Not only is it practically impossible for this group to amass the necessary funds to continue legal proceedings, it is grossly unfair that they should be required to do so, given that their loss is due solely and entirely to this government's neglect. It is only a small crumb of justice to give, when the Crown Trust preferred shareholders are entitled to so much more.

Federation of Ontario Naturalists

One of the literary images that has stayed with me from public school is an illustration of Gulliver (from Gulliver's Travels) tethered to the ground by a mesh of fine rope anchored by an army of the miniature Lilliputians. That's how I feel at 6.45 every week day morning. But what really keeps the image fresh are those summertime encounters with the almost invisible silken chords which snare you when passing through doorways, or on walks in the woods, and which you can't cast off, struggle as you may.

These silken chords are put there by spiders, of course, and they're really a marvelous creation. Spider silk is an albuminoid protein believed to be quite similar to the insect silk which we use commercially. However, it is secreted in special abdominal glands which distinguish spiders from their close Arachnid relatives.

A spider scarcely moves without leaving its silken trail or drag line, behind. It uses silk in constructing its retreat such as a web or chamber, or for its burrow lining or trap door. With silk it makes egg sacs and nurseries for its young, mating structures such as sperm webs, courtship and mating bowers, mating chambers, and even, in one group of species, a bridal veil. With silk, it builds traps and devices for snaring its prey, as well as bands for binding and holding the victims.

It is the spider's drag line which you and I often encounter and can't bat away. Made up of at least two closely adherent threads, it may be spun out very rapidly if the spider wishes to drop in a hurry from its web or off a precipice to escape danger. Fine, but how can a spider, which has no wings to fly, manage to hang a drag line across an open doorway? It's called ballooning. This is done mostly by the spiderlings recently emerged from their egg sac, but may be practised by adults. Each climbs to some point where it may be caught up in a breeze, then, wafted in the air current, it spins a drag line. Sometimes spiders travel great distances on air currents, having been found to land in numbers on ships 200 miles at sea, and at altitudes of 10,000 feet.

Nowadays, scientists are trying to find the chemical keys to the strength of spider silk. As fine as 1 millionth of an inch in diameter, spider silk is more than twice as strong per weight as steel alloys, yet so elastic as to stretch 30% before breaking. When wetted by rain, the silk becomes rubbery, contracting by half, doubling in volume and becoming super

White water weekend

While the number of spectators at this year's Provincial White Water Kayak Slalom Championships seemed to be down from previous years, the competition was keen. Top paddlers from throughout the province challenged the foaming water of the Gull River in a number of classes.

Expert commentary provided by Roger Parsons held to keep the spectators informed as to what was taking place in the river and who the competitors were.

As usual, the fragile kayaks were often lost in the foaming water as the paddlers threaded their way downstream. On the right, a competitor gulps down a mouthful of air after righting his boat below the Horseshoe Falls. Below a pair of paddlers work their way through the same churning water.

Unfortunately, more than just spectators used the garbage facilities provided at the Wild Water Preserve, resulting in the less than pleasing scene, below, right.

Editor:

Mr. Gambell's criticism of the selection committee's decision to hire Emily Skinner as manager of the Chamber of Commerce is far too premature.

It was the selection committee's decision after a considerable deliberation period to hire Mrs. Skinner and if Mr. Gambell believes in the Chamber as he says, shouldn't he favour their decision and give the lady a fair chance?

County council's request for information from the Chamber as to why certain services and projects had not been completed is understandable, but Lutterworth council's campaign to withdraw funding from the Chamber and the direct attack on the manager creates the impression that somebody has an axe to grind.

On visiting the boundary information centre, I found it poorly located and the staff appologetic on this account, whereas the Chamber office, although needing to be made more attractive was at least on the right side of the road.

I sincerely hope that members of the Chamber will support its existence and also support the present manager in her conscientious efforts to be fair to everybody in the Chamber.

There is no doubt, judging by the rapt attention of these youngsters, that the Deckhands Puppet Theatre had scored another hit. The puppeteer troupe, sponsored by the Lake Ontario Regional Library System and the Minden Library, appeared at the local facility Thursday.

Council accepts clerk's resignation

After serving the municipalities of Anson, Hindon and Minden for the past ten years, Elinor Burke attended her last council meeting as the clerk-treasurer Thursday evening.

After council accepted with deep regret Burke's resignation, Reeve Lyle McKnight commented, "I don't suppose we are all in favour but we have to accept."

The reeve stated that he had enjoyed working with Elinor over the years as a member of council and as Reeve. "We are going to miss your expertise," he said.

Elinor told council that she had worked with several councils since joining the municipality in 1974 and added, "This has been one of the more demanding councils."

She explained that she had resigned her position because she felt that she would not be able to go further than Clerk-Treasurer while working for the municipality and that she wanted to expand her horizons. "I won't miss the late meetings" she said, "although I will miss working with you." She added that she would not miss the "stale donuts" served at the council meetings.

Elinor noted that she would still be able to get involved in the council meetings through the newspaper. "I am not leaving town" she said, adding, "I will be available for advice during the initial transition."

Beverly Ann Miller, who is currently the assistant clerk-treasurer, was appointed clerk-treasurer and tax collector for the townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden commencing September 1.

Trent-Severn news

At 76.8% on August 20, the levels of the reservoir lakes averaged some 18% higher than in 1983. This is also some 10.8% higher than the 10 year average for the date as rains continue to produce considerable run-off. In 1980 the level averaged 81.5% on this date, but considerable difficulty occurred that autumn when rains were heavy as well.

If the same slow rate of decline continues in the week to August 27, the reservoir flow will need to be increased again from the moderate values over the past week.

On the Kawartha Lakes the surplus from the rain has been discharged and Otonabee flows again are near summer averages for the time of year. We should not have to reduce to minimum flows the rest of this summer if present weather trends continue.

Council briefs

Anson, Hindon and Minden municipal council has appointed three area residents to serve as co-chairpersons on a heritage conservation committee to serve the three townships.

Dwight Thomas, Laura Kirkwood and Bob MacBrien were appointed to organize a Local Architectural Conservation Advisory Committee comprised of five members.

The committee will qualify for financial assistance and technical advice from the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture regarding the preservation of buildings of historical and/or architectural significance.

The committee will be investigating the possibility of relocating historical buildings on a site near the museum to create a pioneer village.

Meeting called
The Art Gallery

Committee has requested a meeting with the Museum Committee to decide the fate of the Mini Fair booth located behind the Art Gallery.

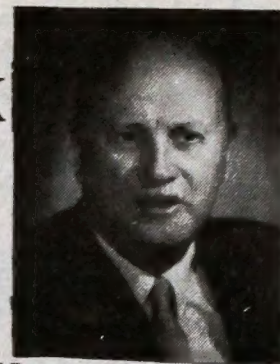

Barbara Elder, president of the Board of Directors of the Agnes Jamieson Art Gallery, requested a meeting of the co-ordinating committee in a letter to Council.

The president stated that the gallery committee wants the booth left in its present location so that it can be eventually used as a storage area or for office space or sales.

Mrs. Elder noted that since the booth is located directly behind the gallery it is possible for a single attendant at the gallery to supervise both buildings.

The Museum Committee has indicated that it wants the building moved from its present location since they hope to erect another building on the site.

For REAL Change in Ottawa

The Economy

Over the last eighteen years of Liberal government our economy has been badly mismanaged to the point where we have:

- ✳ Record high interest rates, over 12%
- ✳ Record levels of unemployment, over 1.4 million out of work
- ✳ A record low exchange rate for our dollar, below 75¢ in July
- ✳ $20 Billion interest on the public debt

The main goal of a PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE government will be to put unemployed Canadians back to work. Our second commitment is to genuine economic growth. This can be achieved by innovative policies which will:

- ✳ Provide assistance to people willing to start up their own legitimate business
- ✳ Curtail the abusive exercise of authority by Revenue Canada which has contributed to the over 37,000 business and consumer bankruptcies last year alone.
- ✳ Lower interest rates
- ✳ Provide new training and retraining programs to help the jobless of all ages find employment.

"We can do better together."

A Little Britain player finds himself airborne during a game against the Minden Viceroy's soccer team played Saturday at the Archie Stouffer School pitch. The Viceroy's were defeated 5-1 suffering their second defeat of the season.

Kickers extend winning streak

The Dixie Lee Soccer team extended its undefeated streak to 5 games with a 1-0 win over the Bracebridge Juniors on Sunday.

Jim Milne recorded the shut-out as the regular net-minder was absent. Strong play in the midfield by Ivor Thompson and the entire fullback squad kept most Bracebridge penetration to a minimum.

Kevin Sicard missed a great scoring chance in the first half by inches and thus the first half ended scoreless.

The play moved from end to end with few chances until Scooter Burgess relayed an Ivor Thompson pass to Terry Crowe who left-footed a low shot into the left corner.

Bracebridge tried to pressure the locals but strong work by Al Jopling, Geoff Wynne, Harvey Williams and the entire Dixie Lee "flock" kept the attack outside the goal crease for most of the second half.

Mike Hatkoski, Brian Holden and Scooter Burgess continued to apply pressure on the Juniors until the final whistle.

Congratulations, on a job well done. The team's next game is against Orillia International and then the play-offs begin.

Viceroy's suffer setback

The previously unbeaten Minden Viceroy's soccer team suffered a setback this past week losing two games at home.

On Wednesday evening the team went down to a 3-0 defeat against Huntsville.

The visiting team counted three goals in the rain soaked first half before the Minden players regrouped to put on a strong defensive effort in the second half.

The absence of several key players for the Minden team had a significant effect on the outcome of the game.

The playing conditions on the Archie Stouffer School pitch were greatly improved on Saturday afternoon but the dry and sunny weather did little to help the Viceroy's efforts as the visiting team from Little Britain coasted to a 5-1 win.

Dean Sisson opened the scoring for Minden at the 16 minute mark of the first half on a pass from Joey Porter.

Little Britain tied the game at one all to end the first half.

After the break Little Britain quickly went ahead on a goal then playing a well disciplined brand of soccer they dominated the rest of the game, scoring three more goals.

Social worker to speak at Home Support meeting

The following is an article that appeared in the May 15th, 1984 edition of the Peterborough Examiner. We are reprinting it with their permission.

The Peterborough Family Counselling Service has been awarded a $22,000 grant from the Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services to counsel seniors and their families on problems related to aging, said executive director Wayne Casey.

A part-time social worker has been hired to start developing the program in June. Sharon Chapman-Sheehan, who has a masters degree in social work and several years counselling and administrative experience, will likely spend a month familiarizing herself with services already being provided in the community.

In 1980 a District Health Council task force reported that the counties of Peterborough, Victoria, Haliburton and Northumberland had a higher percentage of seniors than the provincial average and "emotional advice" had been identified as a need by the ministry, Peterborough Civic Hospital, Home Care and the Senior Citizens' Information bureau, Mr. Casey said.

The project will be funded for one year but could be extended "if successful and the money is available."

One of the key services of the new program will be to counsel seniors and their families about nursing homes, alternative lifestyles and resources available.

In order to help families make the appropriate decision, Mr. Casey said case conferences could be set up involving doctors, home care professionals and the Victorian Order of Nurses.

Family Counselling Services will be working with other groups already in the community. The role of the agency may simply be to help provide families with information on existing programs.

"Our role might be to help them walk through the system and might involve an interview with the whole family."

Advice may be given relatives of the aging parent to help them adjust to a parent moving in with them and make them aware of the resources available.

Mr. Casey said seminars and workshops will be developed to educate the public on aging. There could be small group discussions for the "sandwich generation", middle-aged adults still raising their own families and coping with an aging parent, or groups for seniors who have lost spouses.

Death and dying and remarriage among the elderly will be topics of discussion in the program.

Mr. Casey said by working cooperatively with groups already providing services for seniors in the Peterborough area, the new counselling program "has the potential to offer a worthwhile service."

Sharon Chapman-Sheehan will be the guest speaker at Haliburton Home Support Services 4th Annual Meeting on Friday, September 14 at the Haliburton Legion. Phone 457-2941 before September 6 for reservations. Everyone is welcome. Have a nice day!

As her teammates cheer her on, Mary Anne Little reaches home plate, after slugging a home run. The homer began a thirteen run two inning comeback by the Haliburton Juniors who went on to defeat the Minden Dixie Lee Seniors 14-11 on Monday night. The Seniors hold a one game lead in the championship series.

Seniors lead series 2-1

The Minden Dixie Lee Seniors and Haliburton Juniors won a game apiece in the Ladies Softball finals this past week, putting the Seniors ahead by a single game in the series.

The second game in the series was played in Haliburton last Wednesday night in Haliburton. This was another exciting close game and like the first, the Dixie Lee Seniors were victorious.

In this game Nelda Cully did the bulk of the pitching, with help from Ann Hewson. The Seniors had a good night at the plate, especially Laurie Brown Wood who was on base 5 of 6 times at bat and scored 3 runs. Helen Burk was on base 5 of 5 times and scored two runs. Other big bats for the Minden Seniors were Wendy Gough and Nelda Cully who both made it to base 4 out of 5 times and scored 3 runs each. The final score was 16-14.

The Juniors got back into the series with a come from behind win on Monday night defeating the Seniors 14-11.

It was a close and low scoring game until the bottom of the fifth inning when the Seniors scored 5 runs to take a 7-1 lead. However, the roof collapsed on the Seniors in the next two innings.

The Juniors scored 8 runs in the sixth inning and five more in the seventh to double the Seniors 14-7.

The Dixie Lee team made a strong attempt at a comeback by scoring four runs in the bottom of the seventh inning but fell short by three runs.

Marg Smith pitched the win for the Juniors. Nelda Cully and Ann Hewson shared the loss for the Seniors.

Trish Slavik and Barb Winn were the top hitters for Dixie Lee. Both made it to base on all four tries. Trish also scored three runs.

Jane Symonds, Nelda

Cully and Corry Ziorjen also played well for Minden making it to base on three of four tries.

The fourth game in the series will be played in Haliburton at 7 p.m. Wednesday, August 29.

Following this game at 9 p.m., the Haliburton Seniors and Wilberforce will be playing the sixth game in their "B" series.

Craft Council will meet here

by Virginia Muenzel

The Canadian Crafts Council Annual General Meeting and Conference for 1984, will take place in Haliburton's Wig-a-Mog Inn from Wednesday, September 19 through Sunday, September 23. The conference will celebrate the tenth anniversary of the CCC and Ontario's bi-centennial.

The Haliburton School of Fine Arts has organized an exciting preconference workshop conducted by Canadian fashion designer Marilyn Brooks. The preconference schedule also includes craft education and Canadian Crafts Council board and executive meetings.

The Collage workshops with Marilyn Brooks are ideal for local residents interested in incorporating their craft with today's fashion trend, the proven money market. The cost for this three day workshop from Wednesday, September 19 through Friday, September 21, for residents is $55. This includes lunches. Register at Rails' End Gallery.

The cost of the weekend for local residents is $80. This includes seminars, speakers, three meals each day and a social evening. Seminar topics will include 1. Craft in contemporary architecture. 2. Preserving the past (conservation, collections, traditional skills). 3. Integration of new technology and computer techniques with traditional skills. 4. Marketing: wholesale, retail - craft fairs/own studio. 5. New directions for exhibitions (video? performance art?) 6. Relevance of function. 7. Promotion and advertising strategies for organizations.

On Sunday, there will be a panel discussion, "Making the Case for Craft", and a Bronfman Slide Presentation.

Coinciding with the conference, at the Rails' End Gallery there will be a showing of Jean A. Chalmers Bicentennial Collection. The collection presents significant work by fourteen Ontario craftsmen. New works in this exhibition were commissioned for the Ontario Crafts Council's permanent collection by Jean A. Chalmers to celebrate Ontario's bicentennial year.

Mrs. Chalmers, who will celebrate her eighty-fifth birthday in August, 1984, also made possible the purchase of the Canadian work featured in the 1974 World Crafts Conference "In Praise of Hands". The exhibit opens Friday, September 21.

The Haliburton School of Fine Arts, and Sir Sandford Fleming College is anxious to have some local input to this conference. We have so much talent here, it would be nice to have as many as possible at these meetings. Please contact Chris Lynd at the Gallery for more details.

Well Readers, The Haliburton County Fair is over. I guess, judging from the large crowds, it was a success. They took us in our Hyland Crest bus to join in the parade, along with a lovely lunch, served by our worthy volunteers, which we ate right on the bus. They were afraid to let us children out, in case we kicked up a fuss.

Lots of company over the weekend - some coming in, some going out, which was fine. Some had relatives staying with them to dine.

We have Jessie Walter back with us again, after a lengthy stay in hospital. We would just like to say "Welcome back, Jessie. We hope you will be feeling better with each passing day."

In the chapel service Sunday night were the Pettit family, Dad, Mother and two daughters. They came all the way from Bancroft. In the service they lent a hand. The way they played and sang for us was simply grand.

Our ladies working in the craft room are busy dames. They have just taken another quilt out of the quilting frames.

Linda showed us movies Monday night, which was really fine - "Walk A While In My Shoes" and "The Unbroken Line".

Sympathy to the Moore family, from all here, we would like to say. Bill's sister, Ethel, just recently passed away.

Sorry to report that nurse Lynda Williams was in hospital for repairs. She broke her arm while falling down their stairs.

Jack Stewart is gone for a lengthy holiday. He says he just doesn't know how long he'll be away.

Rev. Westhaver, of Minden United Church, took the service in the chapel this lovely August day, which was really fine. Owing to illness he was hospitalized for quite some time. We would like to say "Thank You" also to Fred Ballard, who comes with music to play.

Tuesday noon Doris said, "If you folks pull up your socks we will take you in our bus to Kirkfield Liftlocks." Really, we had nothing else to do, so thought it would be nice to watch the boats go through. It was a really nice day and we had a nice trip, but we were getting rather dry, as we had nothing on our hip.

Mrs. Stutt's daughter, Ruth, and grand daughter, Patricia, called on her today. Patricia teaches school in Brampton, by the way.

Tuesday night our musicians, Smith and Watson came to play. They played a steady pace, all the way from the Devil's Dreams to Amazing Grace. Gordon Ruttle, who knows a few tricks, kept time to the music on his maple sticks.

The Baptist Ladies, from Kinmount, came on Thursday afternoon. They brought and served a lovely lunch. Then Doris played the music. We all joined in and sang some lively tunes.

Our Activities Directors, Doris and Linda, both have birthdays on Saturday and won't be here. We wish them a happy birthday with lots of birthday cheer, for we all love them and think they are just grand, always more than willing to give a helping hand, always planning something to keep us entertained. It is our wish from all here at Hyland Crest, with many more birthdays they will be truly blessed. Edna Cowan has a birthday the same day too. Congratulations and best wishes, we will say to you.

We had no sing song Friday afternoon. So we played a game down in the gym. You had to be right on your toes if you wanted to win.

Friday night our piano player, Ray Usher came, brought his good wife too. He can really handle the keys, I'm telling you. Next Friday night will be the last night they will be here to play. We will surely miss them when they go away.

To all card-playing enthusiasts: 1:15 p.m. is the new time for the weekly card games commencing September 3. The card games will be as follows: bridge on Monday, cribbage on Tuesday, and euchre on Wednesday at the Haliburton County Home Support Drop-In Centre.

All persons, 55 and over are also invited to a presentation and instruction to cake decorating by Anne Barker on Tuesday, September 25 from 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Only 25 participants will be accepted, so please register at our office early (before September 18). There is no fee for this workshop, and each person is asked to bring their own lunch.

In order to organize a senior swim program, convened by Mrs. Connie Love, at one of the local swimming pools, she requires names of persons who are willing to pay the full membership and make an effort to attend all the sessions. For more information, please call Connie Love at 457-2725.

We also require participants for a fitness program that will be carried out in the fall. Date and time will depend on the participants' wishes.

Come and participate in one of the programs or all. If you have any questions, please call us at our office, 457-2171 or 457-2941 or come and pay us a visit. We are located in the Drag River Municipal Building across from Emerson Lumber.

Did you know...that our office has information regarding retirement pensions?

If you are approaching the age of 65, you will no doubt be preparing to apply for your future financial benefits.

We have Old Age Security and Canada Pension Plan application forms along with a variety of pamphlets such as, "Benefit rate guide", "More retirement income", "Are you eligible?", "The Canada pension plan", "Ontario drug benefits for senior citizens", and many more.

We can advise on the Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) and Guaranteed Annual Income Supplement (GAINS) along with providing information on the Ontario Tax Grants.

You should apply for the OAS pension and CPP (if eligible) approximately 6 months before your 65th birthday to be assured of receiving your benefits on time.

Your County Information Centre will gladly help you in filling out your applications and assisting in obtaining the necessary documents required.

Please keep in mind that we are here to help people of all ages find solutions to social, health, governmental and environmental subjects. We are located in the Drag River Municipal Building (across from Emmerson Lumber) in Haliburton and are open Monday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. So why not drop in or give us a call at 457-2733. And remember, you will never know the answer, until you ask the question.

by Caroline Bishop

Our summer has continued busy - the rains have brought many visitors, for daily drop-in as well as special events.

On July 17 about 40 people enjoyed a field day, complete with obstacle courses and others.

July 25 was cooking day: small hands made many yummy treats.

Circus day was a resounding success: huge crowds, balloons, popcorn, many painted faces, and performances highlighted by young acrobats, bareback riders, a daring lion tamer and his ferocious lions, and a large convoy of clowns.

In the middle of "all that rain" we celebrated a bright sunny hot day with our annual pot-luck picnic August 8. Dozens of watermelon plants will mark the spot next spring!

And on August 16 many young puppeteers made their puppets, and regaled us all with their performances.

Learning begins at home

September is almost upon us, gardens overflowing, woodpiles growing, and school looms large. For some of us, the house will be nearly empty after Labour Day. For those with smaller children, the question sometimes arises, "How can I help them learn?" Of course, you have already been, since birth, a valuable resource to your child in his or her learning. With you as reference they have tucked away vast amounts of information, from the most basic "I am a lovable, worthwhile person," to the more abstract "birds fly".

Not only facts, but also the more difficult is to express feelings and attitudes that give our lives richness and depth, has your child acquired your guidance: ways of living happily with people, and in tune with nature, a delight in new experiences, and infinitely more, according to the uniqueness of your own family. And so many skills acquired, especially speech. This amazing feat has been accomplished with only her family as a resource, and in a very short time.

How have you accomplished all this? Not by attending Teacher's College, or calling in the experts. Through tuning in to your baby from the moment of birth, you have learned to respond to your child's cues, supporting them as they go forward into their world. You have played with them, at their level, sung with them, talked with them, read to them, included them in your play/work (as far as they are concerned, there's no distinction), - all these are part of your gift of learning.

It takes longer to do dishes with a small helper, but you know how important it is to them. How many two-year olds have been heard to plead, "but I need to help!" It's true. In your unique position as parent you have helped them become who they are now: why not use those skills, continue to follow their cues, and go forward in love on your adventure of learning together? Outside influences may become appropriate as they get older, and you will know when the time is right, from your intimate knowledge of your child based on years of daily interaction.

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Some have hidden words or sayings, some do not. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off in the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun.

Angus and Gloria Cameron of Norland visited with Bess and Fred Cox on the weekend.

A question

Should my modest home, Folks, be Considered as a slum?
The difference in taxes point
Me up, Folks, as a bum.

Does my modest home appear
Unsanitary in price?
You think you'll be afflicted by
Bugs and lice and mice?

If what you have in property
Begets your social stance,
Does that equate with quality
Of person elegance?

Should quality of person be Assumed, Folks, by your caste?
Should I assume your virtue
Consider you more chaste?

And what's this of democracy?
It makes the claim sound sick
When you pull the covers off
And when you touch the quick.

I really do resent the fact
You Madam, and his Nobs
Should look on me with such disdain
Be such pretentious snobs.

But then, Folks, Christian tolerance
Is bidding I forgive
The world's made up of many kinds
It's live Folks, and let live.

Prometheus
(Greek Mythology)

W. Watson,
R.R. 2, Minden.

Prometheus, titan, God of fire,
Fanned the flame of man's desire.
One day to Heaven he softly came
And stole from it the precious flame
He sold it to man for ill-gotten gain.
Then Zeus roared out his proclivity
His wrath, a frightful thing to see
"By all the Gods
List well to me -
What awful punishment I decree -
Now bring Prometheus to me!"
To him the trembling God was brought
To hear the punishment he bought.
"On top of Mount Caucasus
Ye shall stay
Girded by chains
Alone to pray.
And my favourite vulture, the bird of prey
Shall peck thy liver
Day by Day
Until a scapegoat can be found
And in thy place shall then be bound."
But then Chiron - the centaur bold
Renowned for his medicine, and he told
The raging Zeus, "for his deliverance I shall pay,
So take Prometheus away."
Now Hercules, on vengeance bent
Saw the way where Chiron went,
And with mighty sweeping of his sword
Slew the vulture and Caucasus roared
Volcanoes erupted and lava boiled -
But from that awful, ancient day
The power of flame, is here to stay!

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our neighbours and friends for their kindness when we lost our dear sister and aunt Ethel Harrison. Special thanks to the Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home and Father George Elliott for their comfort and support during our time of sorrow. Also thanks to St. Stephen's Guild and all who gave food and served lunch after the funeral.
The Family

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone for their cards and inquiries following my accident. A special thanks to the Prentice family for the fruit basket and to Mark and Wes for the get well message.
Steven Stewart

The family of the late Ernest Berry wish to thank everyone for the many expressions of kindness, support and friendship shown during our recent bereavement.

Orv, Rose and family wish to thank our many friends and neighbours for their quick action and concern for our son and brother Danny, who was critically injured on July 27, 1984 on Hawk Lake Road. Special thanks to Edna Jamieson, Ada Gardiner and Rev. Hill. Thanks so much.
Orv and Rose Donnelly

To all those who participated in and made the Donkey Baseball such a success - thank you.
